ADDRESS

We recommend this book, the Manual, to our people for careful and conscientious study, as it contains the doctrines and laws of our church. In the study of this book you will find a short history of the origin and growth of the church, a clear and concise statement of doctrine, and the laws by which we consent to be governed—all of which have been simply and conveniently arranged.

This Manual has been formed by representative bodies of godly and consecrated men and women sitting in General Assembly, who have carefully and prayerfully sought the promotion of the kingdom of God, without regard to personal interests, which fact gives weight to the contents of this volume.

The study of this Manual and of the Manuals published by other General Assemblies will reveal the fact that no changes have been made in our doctrines at any time. We sincerely hope and believe that none will ever be made, as these doctrines are founded upon the revealed Word, which abides unchangeable for ever.

You will discover that a few minor changes have been made by the Seventh General Assembly in the laws of the church, changes deemed wise and profitable after four years of practical experience in the operation of the church under the laws passed by the preceding General Assembly. The fundamental principles of our government remain the same. The laws founded upon these principles may from time to time undergo adjustments, but the principles underlying these laws must ever be the same. In polity we are neither purely episcopal nor wholly congregational; but we are representative in form of government, giving the laity and ministry equal authority in all deliberative bodies.

Our church has an evident and well defined commission from God, namely to propagate the gospel throughout the world, seeking the conversion of sinners, the reclamation of backsliders, the sanctification of believers, especially emphasizing the precious doctrine of full salvation. We have an objective, but this objective is not to have an existence merely for the sake of an existence. Our purpose lies outside of ourselves. It is to evangelize and conserve the results obtained. This we believe can be done best through a well organized church movement. It is true, holiness does not need to be organized; but it can be promoted and conserved effectively only through organization.

We sincerely urge our people everywhere to study the doctrines and laws contained in this book until they become thoroughly acquainted with them—that the principles contained herein may master their affections and be a foundation for their conduct. We urge loyalty to our principles, interests, and institutions. Study of our laws and doctrines will create love for them, and love will result in genuine loyalty and faithfulness. Love and loyalty will greatly increase our efficiency and usefulness under the leadership of the Holy Ghost. Solidarity of support and effort in service with faith in God will yield gracious returns this quadrennium.

With loyalty to His cause, and faith in Jesus Christ,

H. F. REYNOLDS,

HISTORICAL STATEMENT

HISTORICAL STATEMENT

¶ 1. Near the close of the nineteenth century, a movement for the spread and conservation of scriptural holiness, corresponding somewhat to that historically known as the Wesleyan revival of the previous century, developed, almost simultaneously, in various parts of the United States—everywhere with a spontaneous drawing, in the unity of the Spirit, toward closer affiliation of those of like precious faith, and finally culminating in the organization of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene.

The great impulse of this movement has been the emphasis placed by the Scriptures upon the fact that, in the atonement, Jesus Christ has made provision not only to save men from their sins, but also to perfect them in love.

¶ 2. In January, 1894, William Howard Hoople, a business man in New York City, founded a mission in Brooklyn, which, in the following May, was organized as an independent church, with a membership of thirty-two, and called "Utica Avenue Pentecostal Tabernacle." A church edifice was afterward erected, and Mr. Hoople was called to the pastorate. The following February the Bedford Avenue Pentecostal Church was organized, in an abandoned church building, and a little later, the Emmanuel Pentecostal Tabernacle. In December, 1895, delegates from these three churches formed the "Association of Pentecostal Churches of America," adopting a constitution, a summary of doctrines, and by-laws. This association was duly incorporated. Associated with Rev. William Howard Hoople in this work were Rev. H. B. Hosley, Rev. John Norberry, Rev. Charles BeVier, and Rev. H. F. Reynolds.

¶3. In the meantime, several independent churches had been organized for the same purpose in New England, and a ministerial organization had been effected, known as the Central Evangelical Holiness Association. Prominently connected with this work were Rev. F. A. Hillery, Rev. C. Howard Davis, and Rev. F. L. Sprague. In November, 1896, upon invitation of the Association of Pentecostal Churches of America, a joint committee of these two associations and other independent churches met in the city of Brooklyn, New York. This meeting resulted in several of these churches uniting with the Association of Pentecostal Churches of America.

¶4. In October, 1895, a number of persons, under the leadership of Rev. Phineas F. Bresee, D.D., and Rev. J. P. Widney, LL.D., formed the First Church of the Nazarene, at Los Angeles, California, with one hundred and thirty-five charter members. They adopted statements of belief, and agreed to such general rules as seemed proper and needful for their immediate guidance, leaving to the future the making of such provisions as the work and its conditions might necessitate. As a result of this organization, a number of churches sprang into existence, reaching as far east as Chicago.

¶5. As these two bodies came to know more of each other, it was felt that they should unite; and, after consultation by delegates from one body to the other, the following basis of union was prepared and unanimously adopted by both bodies. The first union Assembly was held in Chicago, in October, 1907.

¶6. BASIS OF UNION

It is agreed that the two churches are one in the doctrines considered essential to salvation, especially the doctrines of justification by faith and entire sanctification subsequent to justification, also by faith, and, as a result, the precious experience of entire sanctification as a normal condition of the churches. Both churches recognize that the right of church membership rests upon experience; and that persons, who have been born of the Spirit are entitled to its privileges.

We are agreed on the necessity of a superintendency, which shall foster and care for churches already established, and whose duty it shall be to organize and encourage the organizing of churches everywhere.

We are agreed that authority given to superintendents shall not interfere with the independent action of a fully organized church, each church enjoying the right of selecting its own pastor, subject to such approval as the General Assembly shall find wise to institute; the election of delegates to the various assemblies; the management of their own finances; and of all other things pertaining to their local life and work.

It is agreed that any church of the Association of Pentecostal Churches of America going into this organization which may feel it imperative with them to continue to hold their property in like manner as at present, shall be at liberty to do so.

It was agreed that the name of the united body should be, "The Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene."

¶ 7. In 1894, the first organization of the New Testament Church of Christ was effected by Rev. R. L. Harris, at Milan, Tennessee, with fourteen members. This church was deemed necessary to conserve the work of holiness, and soon spread throughout Western Texas and Arkansas. Prominent among the leaders was Mrs. Mary Lee Harris (now Mrs. Cagle), the wife of Rev. R. L. Harris, who took up the work after the death of her husband.

¶ 8. In 1898, the first holiness churches were organized in Texas, by Rev. Thomas Rogers and Rev. Dennis Rogers, who came from California.

¶ 9. In 1900, the first Independent Holiness Church was organized, by Rev. C. B. Jernigan, at Van Alstyne, Texas, and the denomination grew and prospered until, in 1903, there were twenty church organizations.

¶ 10. In 1904, at Rising Star, Texas, the Independent Holiness Church and the New Testament Church of Christ were united in one body, called the Holiness Church of Christ.

¶ 11. At the General Assembly of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene, at Chicago, in 1907, in response to an invitation, several persons were present from the Holiness Church of Christ. Some of these were appointed to attend; but were not authorized to take any action with reference to organic union. The Assembly invited them into counsel, and provisional arrangements were made for incorporating this Church into the general body, upon proper action on their part; and this was finally consummated in the meeting of the General Assembly, at Pilot Point, Texas, October 8, 1908.

¶ 12. In the year 1898, Rev. J. O. McClurkan and a few of God's children called a meeting of the holiness people of Tennessee and adjacent states to be held in Nashville. At this convention an association was formed known as the Pentecostal Alliance, which name was afterward changed to the Pentecostal Mission. From the beginning these people were evangelistic in spirit, having a burning desire to disseminate the doctrine and experience of sanctification; hence there came together in different sections of the Southland groups of holiness people, known as bands of the Pentecostal Mission. They were decidedly missionary in spirit, and soon were sending their representatives to "the regions beyond." Throughout their career they have been characterized by this missionary zeal.

At different times the question of the union of the Pentecostal Mission with the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene had been discussed, and on February 13, 1915, this union was effected at Nashville, Tennessee, thus uniting both the home and the foreign work of the Pentecostal Mission and the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene.

¶ 13. In November, 1901, the first stage in the present holiness church movement in the British Isles began, when the Rev. George Sharpe, who had been for thirteen and one-half years a preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church, accepted a call to the Congregational Church at Ardrossan, Scotland. In September, 1905, he was accepted as the minister of Parkhead Congregational Church, Glasgow, where, after a strenuous, successful, and glorious ministry of thirteen months, he was evicted for preaching Bible holiness.

On September 30, 1906, the first services of the first distinctively holiness church were held in the Great Eastern Roads Hall, Glasgow. The charter members numbered eighty. Other churches were organized and became the Pentecostal Church of Scotland. Visits of Dr. E. F. Walker and Dr. H. F. Reynolds to Scotland, and a visit of Rev. George Sharpe and Mrs. Sharpe to the Fourth General Assembly, at Kansas City, Missouri, led the way to union with the Church of the Nazarene, which was consummated in November, 1915.

¶ 14. The General Assembly of 1919, in response to memorials from thirty-five District Assemblies, changed the name of the organization to "Church of the Nazarene."

CHAPTER I

ARTICLES OF FAITH

¶ 15. As Christians associated together for fellowship and service in the Church of the Nazarene—that there may be no harmful and divisive difference of belief, to the injury of any, or the disturbance of the harmony and peace of the church, but that we may all be of “the same mind and the same judgment,” so that “with one mind and one voice we may glorify God,” edify His people, and give Christian testimony to the world—we formulate the following enlarged statement of doctrine:

I. The Triune God

¶ 16. We believe in one eternally existent, infinite God, Sovereign of the universe. That He only is God, creative and administrative, holy in nature, attributes, and purpose. That He, as God, is Triune in essential being, revealed as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

II. Jesus Christ

¶ 17. We believe in Jesus Christ, the second person of the Triune Godhead; that He was eternally one with the Father; that He became incarnate by the Holy Spirit and was born of the Virgin Mary, so that two whole and perfect natures, that is to say the Godhead and manhood, are thus united in one person very God and very man, the God-man.

We believe that Jesus Christ died for our sins, and that He truly arose from the dead and took again His body, together with all things appertaining to the perfection of man's nature, wherewith He ascended into heaven and is there engaged in intercession for us.

III. The Holy Spirit

¶ 18. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the Triune Godhead, that He is ever present and efficiently active in and with the Church of Christ, convincing the world of sin, regenerating those who repent and believe, sanctifying believers, and guiding into all truth as it is in Jesus.

IV. The Holy Scriptures

¶ 19. We believe in the plenary inspiration of the Holy Scriptures by which we understand the sixty-six books of the Old and New Testaments, given by divine inspiration, inerrantly revealing the will of God concerning us in all things necessary to our salvation; so that whatever is not contained therein is not to be enjoined as an article of faith.

V. Original Sin, or Depravity

¶ 20. We believe that original sin, or depravity, is that corruption of the nature of all the offspring of Adam, by reason of which every one is very far gone from original righteousness, or the pure state of our first parents at the time of their creation, is averse to God, is without spiritual life, and is inclined to evil, and that continually; and that it continues to exist with the new life of the regenerate, until eradicated by the baptism with the Holy Spirit.

VI. Atonement

¶ 21. We believe that Jesus Christ, by His sufferings, by the shedding of His own blood, and by His meritorious death on the cross, made a full atonement for all human sin, and that this atonement is the only ground of salvation, and that it is sufficient for every individual of Adam's race. The atonement is graciously efficacious to the salvation of the irresponsible and to children in innocence but is efficacious to the salvation of those who reach the age of responsibility only when they repent and believe.

VII. Free Agency

¶ 22. We believe that man's creation in god-likeness included ability to choose between right and wrong, and that thus he was made morally responsible; that through the fall of Adam he became depraved so that he can not now turn and prepare himself by his own natural strength and works to faith and calling upon God; but the grace of God through Jesus Christ is freely bestowed upon all men, enabling all who will to turn from sin to righteousness, believe on Jesus Christ for pardon and cleansing from sin, and follow good works pleasing and acceptable in His sight.

VIII. Repentance

¶ 23. We believe that repentance, which is a sincere and thorough change of the mind in regard to sin, involving a sense of personal guilt and a voluntary turning away from sin, is demanded of all who have by act or purpose become sinners against God. The Spirit of God gives to all who will repent the gracious help of penitence of heart and hope of mercy, that they may believe unto pardon and spiritual life.

IX. Justification, Regeneration, and Adoption

¶ 24. We believe that justification is that gracious and judicial act of God, by which He grants full pardon of all guilt and complete release from penalty of sins committed, and acceptance as righteous, to all who believingly receive Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

We believe that regeneration, or the new birth, is that gracious work of God, whereby the moral nature of the repentant believer is spiritually quickened and given a distinctively spiritual life, capable of faith, love, and obedience.

We believe that adoption is that gracious act of God by which the justified and regenerated believer is constituted a son of God.

Justification, regeneration, and adoption are simultaneous in the experience of seekers after God and are obtained upon the condition of faith, preceded by repentance; and to this work and state of grace the Holy Spirit bears witness.

X. Entire Sanctification

¶ 25. We believe that entire sanctification is that act of God, subsequent to regeneration, by which believers are made free from original sin, or depravity, and brought into a state of entire devotion to God, and the holy obedience of love made perfect.

It is wrought by the baptism with the Holy Spirit, and comprehends in one experience the cleansing of the heart from sin and the abiding, indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit, empowering the believer for life and service.

Entire sanctification is provided by the blood of Jesus, is wrought instantaneously by faith, preceded by entire consecration; and to this work and state of grace the Holy Spirit bears witness.

This experience is also known by various terms representing its different phases, such as "Christian Perfection," "Perfect Love," "Heart Purity," "The Baptism with the Holy Spirit," "The Fullness of the Blessing," and "Christian Holiness."

XI. Second Coming of Christ

¶ 26. We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ will come again; that we who are alive at His coming shall not precede them that are asleep in Christ Jesus; but that, if we are abiding in Him, we shall be caught up with the risen saints to meet the Lord in the air, so that we shall ever be with the Lord.

XII. Resurrection, Judgment, and Destiny

¶ 27. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, that the bodies both of the just and of the unjust shall be raised to life and united with their spirits—"they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation."

We believe in future judgment in which every man shall appear before God to be judged according to his deeds in this life.

We believe that glorious and everlasting life is assured to all who savingly believe in, and obediently follow, Jesus Christ our Lord; and that the finally impenitent shall suffer eternally in hell.

XIII. Baptism

¶ 28. We believe that Christian baptism is a sacrament signifying acceptance of the benefits of the atonement of Jesus Christ, to be administered to believers, as declarative of their faith in Jesus Christ as their Savior, and full purpose of obedience in holiness and righteousness.

Baptism being the symbol of the New Testament, young children may be baptized, upon request of parents or guardians who shall give assurance for them of necessary Christian training.

Baptism may be administered by sprinkling, pouring, or immersion, according to the choice of the applicant.

XIV. The Lord's Supper

¶ 29. We believe that the Memorial and Communion Supper instituted by our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, is essentially a New Testament sacrament, declarative of His sacrificial death, through the merits of which believers have life and salvation, and promise of all spiritual blessings in Christ. It is distinctively for those who are prepared for reverent appreciation of its significance, and by it they show forth the Lord's death till He come again. Being the Communion feast, only those who have faith in Christ and love for the saints should be called to participate therein.

XV. Divine Healing

¶ 30. We believe in the Bible doctrine of divine healing and urge our people to seek to offer the prayer of faith for the healing of the sick. Providential means and agencies when deemed necessary should not be refused.

CHAPTER II

THE CHURCH

I. The General Church

¶ 31. The Church of God is composed of all spiritually regenerate persons, whose names are written in heaven.

II. The Churches Severally

¶ 32. The churches severally are to be composed of such regenerate persons as by providential permission, and by the leadings of the Holy Spirit, become associated together for holy fellowship and ministries.

III. The Church of the Nazarene

¶ 33. The Church of the Nazarene is composed of those persons who have voluntarily associated themselves together according to the doctrines and polity of said church, and who seek holy Christian fellowship, the conversion of sinners, the entire sanctification of believers, their upbuilding in holiness, and the simplicity and spiritual power manifest in the primitive New Testament Church, together with the preaching of the gospel to every creature.

AGREED STATEMENT OF BELIEF

¶ 34, §1. Recognizing that the right and privilege of persons to church membership rest upon the fact of their being regenerate, we would require only such avowals of belief as are essential to Christian experience.

§2. We, therefore, deem belief in the following brief statements to be sufficient:

(1) In one God—the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

(2) In the plenary inspiration of the Old and New Testament Scriptures, and that they contain all truth necessary to faith and Christian living.

(3) That man is born with a fallen nature, and is, therefore, inclined to evil, and that continually.

(4) That the finally impenitent are hopelessly and eternally lost.

(5) That the atonement through Jesus Christ is for the whole human race; and that whosoever repents and believes on the Lord Jesus Christ is justified and regenerated and saved from the dominion of sin.

(6) That believers are to be sanctified wholly, subsequent to regeneration, through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

(7) That the Holy Spirit bears witness to the new birth, and also to the entire sanctification of believers.

(8) In the return of our Lord, in the resurrection of the dead, and in the final judgment.

CHAPTER III

THE GENERAL RULES

¶ 35, §1. To be identified with the visible Church is the blessed privilege and sacred duty of all who are saved from their sins, and are seeking completeness in Christ Jesus. It is required of all who desire to unite with the Church of the Nazarene, and thus to walk in fellowship with us, that they shall show evidence of salvation from their sins by a godly walk and vital piety; that they shall be, or earnestly desire to be, cleansed from all indwelling sin; and that they shall evidence this—

§2. FIRST. By avoiding evil of every kind, including:

(1) Taking the name of God in vain.

(2) Profaning of the Lord's Day, either by unnecessary labor, or business, or by the patronizing or reading of secular papers, or by holiday diversions.

(3) Using of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, or trafficking therein; giving influence to, or voting for, the licensing of places for the sale of the same; using of tobacco in any of its forms, or trafficking therein.

(4) Quarreling, returning evil for evil, gossiping, slandering, spreading surmises injurious to the good names of others.

(5) Dishonesty, taking advantage in buying and selling, bearing false witness, and like works of darkness.

(6) The indulging of pride in dress or behavior. Our people are to dress with the Christian simplicity and modesty that become holiness. "In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; but (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works" (1 Timothy 2:9, 10). "Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price" (1 Peter 3:3, 4).

(7) Songs, literature, and entertainments not to the glory of God; the theater, the ballroom, the circus, and like places; also, lotteries and games of chance; looseness and impropriety of conduct; membership in or fellowship with oathbound, secret orders or fraternities. "Know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God" (James 4:4). "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? . . . Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you" (2 Corinthians 6:14-17).

§ 3. SECOND. By doing that which is enjoined in the Word of God, which is both our rule of faith and practice, including:

(1) Being courteous to all men.

(2) Contributing to the support of the ministry and the church and its work, according to the ability which God giveth.

(3) Being helpful to those who are of the household of faith, in love forbearing one another.

(4) Loving God with all the heart, soul, mind, and strength.

(5) Attending faithfully all the ordinances of God, and the means of grace, including, the public worship of God, the ministry of the Word, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper; searching the Scriptures and meditating therein; family and private devotions.

(6) Seeking to do good to the bodies and souls of men; feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and ministering to the needy, as opportunity and ability are given.

(7) Pressing upon the attention of the unsaved the claims of the gospel, inviting them to the house of the Lord, and trying to compass their salvation.

§4. THIRD. By abiding in hearty fellowship with the church, not inveighing against its doctrines and usages, but being in full sympathy and conformity therewith.

CHAPTER IV

SPECIAL RULES

I. Support of the Church

"Even so the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel" (1 Cor. 9:14).

¶ 36, §1. There can be no doubt (1) that the church is obligated to support its ministers, who have been called of God, and who, under the direction of the church, have given themselves wholly to the work of the ministry; nor (2) that all the members of the church have voluntarily committed themselves to this task of supporting the ministry. We urge, therefore, that money be gathered weekly for this holy business, and that, wherever possible and practicable, the pastor's salary be paid regularly every week.

§2. We believe that the scriptural method of gathering money for the support of the Church is by means of tithes and offerings. We urge that our people adopt tithing as the scriptural and satisfactory plan, that each member may do his minimum share in the support of the whole church, local, district, and general. And on the basis of the divine promises to liberal givers, we exhort our people to make freewill offerings, in addition to tithes, as generous as circumstances will permit.

§3. In disbursing to meet the requirements of the local, district, and general programs of the Church of the Nazarene, local churches are urged to adopt and practice the budget plan, and wherever possible the general and the district apportionments be paid monthly.

II. Temperance and Prohibition

¶37, §1. The Holy Scriptures and human experience alike condemn the use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage. The manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors for such purposes is a sin against God and the human race. Total abstinence from all intoxicants is the Christian rule for the individual, and total prohibition of the traffic in intoxicants is the duty of civil government.

§2. Only unfermented wine and unleavened bread should be used in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

III. Marriage and Divorce

¶ 38, §1. The institution of marriage was ordained of God in the time of man's innocence, and is, according to apostolic authority, "honorable in all"; it is the mutual union of one man and one woman for fellowship, helpfulness and the propagation of the race. Our people should cherish this sacred estate as becomes Christians, and should enter it only after earnest prayer for divine direction, and when assured that the contemplated union is in accordance with scriptural requirements. They should seek earnestly the blessings which God has ordained in connection with the wedded state, namely, holy companionship, parenthood and mutual love—the elements of home building. The marriage covenant is morally binding so long as both shall live, and, therefore, may not be dissolved at will.

§2. We hold that persons who obtain divorce under the civil law where the scriptural ground for divorce, namely, adultery, does not exist, and subsequently remarry, are living in adultery, and are unworthy of membership in the Church of the Nazarene; and though there may exist such other causes and conditions as may justify divorce under the civil law, yet only adultery will supply such ground as may justify the innocent party in remarrying.

§3. The ministers of the Church of the Nazarene are positively forbidden to solemnize the marriage of persons not having the scriptural right to marry.

IV. Church Officers

¶ 39. We direct our local churches in selecting their church officers to elect only such as are clearly in the experience of entire sanctification.

V. Growth in Grace

¶ 40. There is a marked distinction between a perfect heart and a perfect character. The former is obtained in an instant, the result of entire sanctification, but the latter is the result of growth in grace.

Our mission to the world is not alone the spreading of scriptural holiness as a doctrine, but it is also that we be "an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity." Our people should give careful heed to the development of holiness in the fear of the Lord, and to the development of the Christian graces in the heart and of their manifestation in the daily life.

VI. Stewardship

¶ 41. Our people should recognize God's ownership of all things and our trusteeship—that we are but stewards of our own lives and in the use of our time, means, and other possessions; and that we are under the sacred obligation of systematic and proportionate giving of our time and means for the support of Christian work, and of holding and using all possessions sacredly unto the Lord. This being essential to the more abundant life, we should seek by all proper means to promote the practice of stewardship throughout the church.

CHAPTER V

THE MINISTER

¶ 42, §1. The perpetuity and the efficiency of the Church of the Nazarene, largely, if not wholly, depend upon the spiritual qualifications, the character, and the manner of life of its ministry.

§2. The minister of Christ is to be in all things a pattern to the flock—in diligence, earnestness, discretion, punctuality. “By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned, by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left” (2 Cor. 6:6, 7).

§3. A minister of the gospel of the Church of the Nazarene must know that he has peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, and that he is sanctified wholly by the baptism with the Holy Spirit. He must have a deep sense of the fact that souls for whom Christ died are perishing, and that he is called of God to proclaim to them the glad tidings of salvation.

He must likewise have a deep sense of the necessity of believers’ going on unto perfection and developing the Christian graces in practical living, that their “love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment." He must have a strong appreciation of both salvation and Christian ethics.

§4. As our Lord called unto Him whom He would, and chose and ordained His twelve apostles "that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach," so He still calls and sends forth messengers of the gospel. The Church, illuminated by the Holy Spirit, will recognize the Lord's call.

When the church discovers this divine call, the proper steps should be taken for its recognition and indorsement, and all suitable help should be given to open the way into the ministry.

§5. A minister must have gifts, as well as grace, for the work. He will have a thirst for knowledge, especially of the Word of God; sound judgment and good understanding; clear views concerning the plan of redemption and salvation as revealed in the Scriptures. Saints will be edified and sinners converted through his ministry. He must be an example in prayer.

§6. Any person sustaining a marriage relation contrary to that allowed as justifiable in the foregoing rules [¶ 38, §§1-2] shall be ineligible to the office of the ministry in the Church of the Nazarene.

CHAPTER I

THE LOCAL CHURCH

PREAMBLE

¶ 43, §1. All life must have law; all organization must have government. He who is Head over all things unto the Church Himself gave form and order unto His body of followers and representatives. We seek as a church to conform to principles of government in accord with the Holy Scriptures and Divine providences, that all things may be done scripturally, decently, and in order.

§2. The government of the Church of the Nazarene is representative, and thus avoids the extremes of episcopacy on the one hand, and unlimited congregationalism on the other.

I. Organization of Local Churches

¶ 44. Local churches may be organized by the District Superintendent, or by the General Superintendent having jurisdiction, or by an elder authorized by either of them. [¶ 134 §1, 244 §5.]

II. Membership

¶ 45. The full members of the local church shall be all persons who have been organized into a local church by those authorized so to do, and all who have been publicly received by the pastor, the District Superintendent, or the General Superintendent, after having declared their experience of salvation, and their belief in the doctrines of the Church of the Nazarene, and their willingness to submit to its government. [¶ 44, 50, 64 §2, 134 §1, 244 §5.]

¶ 46. When, at any time, there are persons who desire to unite with the church, having been favorably considered by the pastor and the church membership committee, the minister having charge shall call the applicants forward, and explain to them briefly the privileges of membership in the church and especially with reference to the General Rules [¶ 35], and question them in reference to their faith and experience, using the approved form found in Part IV, Chapter II, ¶ 361, Reception of Members in the Manual. [¶ 50, §§ 1-2.]

III. Probationary Membership

¶ 47. Any local church may, through its church board, [¶ 100, §20] establish a system of probationary membership; but probationers must not be counted as full members.

¶ 48. Probationers shall have all the privileges of church membership, with the exception of voting and holding church office.

¶ 49. Probationers may be received into full membership or dropped at any time, at the discretion of the pastor and church membership committee.

IV. Church Membership Committee

¶ 50, §1. The church board shall provide a church membership committee of not fewer than three persons whose duty it shall be to act in the capacity of an advisory committee with the pastor as chairman, and to approve applications of persons seeking admission into the local church. [¶ 46, 100 §21.]

§2. No person shall be received into the membership of the local church without the prior approval of the church membership committee.

V. Church Letters

¶ 51. The pastor, when requested by a member, may grant a transfer of church membership [see form in ¶ 371] to any local church of the Church of the Nazarene that may be named, such transfer to be valid for three months only. He may, when requested by a member, grant a certificate of commendation [see form in ¶ 369] to any evangelical church that may be named, such person's membership in the local church issuing the certificate ceasing immediately. He may, when requested by a member, grant a letter of dismissal [see form in ¶ 370], such person's membership ceasing immediately. [¶ 64 §13.]

¶ 52, §1. A member of a local church, on removing his place of residence, is required to report to his pastor at least once in six months; and upon failure so to do, his name may be removed from the church roll by the action of the church board. After such action of the church board the pastor shall write opposite his name "Removed without letter." [¶ 100 §22.]

§2. When a member of a local church shall absent himself from all religious services of the church for six successive months without a reason deemed justifiable by the church board, his name may be removed from the church roll by action of the church board, and after such action of the church board the pastor shall write opposite his name "Removed by the church board." [¶ 100 §23.]

¶ 53. When a member of a local church removes to another locality, his pastor shall notify the pastor of the local church nearest to the locality, giving the name and address, if known, of the member who has moved. [¶ 64 §9.]

VI. Church Meetings

¶ 54. An annual church meeting of the full members shall be held for each local church within sixty days prior to the meeting of the District Assembly, public notice of the same always being given from the pulpit at least two Sundays preceding. [¶ ¶ 69, 71, 81, 90.]

¶ 55. The pastor, who shall be, ex officio, president of the local church, the District Superintendent, or the General Superintendent having jurisdiction, or someone appointed by the District Superintendent or the General Superintendent, shall preside at the annual church meeting. ¶ 58. At the annual church meeting, there shall be an election, by ballot, of lay delegates to the District Assembly, on the basis of representation fixed by the General Assembly according to ¶ 127.

¶ 59. Special meetings of the full members of the local church, for conference or the transaction of business, may be called at any time by the pastor or the church board, public notice of the same always being given from the pulpit in at least two preceding regular services, or in such manner as meets the requirements of civil law. ¶ 60. The secretary of the church board shall be the secretary of all church meetings, and in his absence a secretary pro tempore shall be elected. [¶ 101 §5.]

¶ 61. Any business, including elections, in harmony with the spirit and harmony of the church, and not otherwise specially provided for, may be transacted at any church meeting. [¶ 300 §1.]

¶ 62. The church year shall close with the final adjournment of the District Assembly of the Assembly District in which the local church is situated. But the annual reports of the local church to the District Assembly shall close with the last day of the month preceding the month in which the District Assembly is held.

§7. To seek, by all means, the conversion of sinners, the sanctification of the converted, and the upbuilding of God's people in their most holy faith.

§8. To have the care of all departments of local church work.

§9. The pastor shall, when a member of a local church removes to another locality, notify the pastor of the local church nearest to the locality, giving the name and address, if known, of the member who has moved. [¶ 53.]

§10. The pastor shall administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper at least once a quarter. If he be a licensed minister and has failed to pass in the prescribed course of study as provided in ¶ 200 [see also ¶ 362], he shall arrange for such administration by an elder.

§11. The pastor shall, within each church year [¶ 62], read to the congregation the doctrines of the Church of the Nazarene [¶ ¶ 15-42], and that part of the government relating to the local church [¶ ¶ 43-124], and to the District Assembly [¶ ¶ 125-129].

VIII. Calling of a Pastor

¶ 69. An elder or a licensed minister [¶ 63] may be called to the pastorate of a local church by a two-thirds favorable vote of the full members present and voting by ballot at a duly called annual or special meeting of the local church; provided, that such elder or licensed minister shall have been nominated to the local church by majority vote by ballot of all the members of the church board; and provided, the nomination shall have received the approval of the District Superintendent [¶ 134 §8]. In case of disagreement between the church board and the District Superintendent, the church board or the District Superintendent may submit the matter to the General Superintendent having jurisdiction for his decision. From such decision either the church board or the District Superintendent may appeal to the Board of General Superintendents for a final decision.

¶ 70. In case any local church has not called a pastor prior to the convening of the District Assembly, the General Superintendent presiding at the District Assembly, the District Superintendent, and the district advisory board, in concurrence with the delegates from such local church, shall make pastoral arrangements for that local church. [¶ ¶ 131, 148 §2, 244 §6.]

¶ 71. The call of a pastor shall be renewed for the second year and each succeeding year of his pastorate without the nomination of the church board, at a church meeting duly called for this purpose [¶ 59] at least three months prior to the District Assembly, by two-thirds vote, by ballot, of all the full members present and voting; provided, such renewal call shall be approved by the District Superintendent [¶ 134 §8] within thirty days after such call. His failure to disapprove shall be considered and treated as approval. But in case of disapproval of the renewal call by the District Superintendent within that time, either the church or the District Superintendent may submit the matter to the General Superintendent having jurisdiction for his decision. From such decision either the church or the District Superintendent may appeal to the Board of General Superintendents for a final decision.

¶ 72. When a pastor is called, the local church should specify the remuneration he may expect, such amount having been recommended by the church board; and the local church should also make provision for his traveling and moving expenses. [¶ 100 §§4, 5.]

IX. The Local Deaconess

A woman member of the Church of the Nazarene who feels divinely led to engage in ministering to the sick and the needy, comforting the sorrowing, and doing other works of Christian benevolence, and who gives evidence in her life of ability, grace, and usefulness, after proper examination by the church board as to her qualifications for that work, and recommendation by the pastor, may be licensed as a local deaconess for one year by the church board of the local church. PART IV

JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION

- I. DISCIPLINE OF A MEMBER
- II. DISCIPLINE OF A MINISTER
- III. PROCEDURE IN THE TRIAL OF A MINISTER
- IV. PROCEDURE IN THE APPEAL OF A MINISTER
- V. APPEALS

CHAPTER I

DISCIPLINE OF A CHURCH MEMBER

¶ 293. The object of church discipline is not the punishment of offenders, but the vindication of the truth, the purification of the Church, the warning of the careless, and the reformation and salvation of the guilty.

¶ 294. Members of the Church of the Nazarene who do violence to the General Rules [¶ 35], or show disregard for the Special Rules [¶ ¶ 36-42], which are set forth in the Manual, should be dealt with kindly yet faithfully, according to the grievousness of their offenses.

¶ 295, §1. In case a member of the Church of the Nazarene be accused of unchristian conduct, the pastor shall appoint an investigating committee, consisting of not fewer than three nor more than five members. Such committee shall carefully examine into the accusation, which shall be in writing, signed by the accuser or accusers, and shall confer with the accused person. In case it finds that there are grounds for the accusation, a reasonable time shall be given for repentance and reformation.

§2. If it seem necessary, the investigating committee shall prepare and sign charges, and the accused shall be brought before a trial committee of not fewer than three nor more than five (not including any member of the investigating committee), appointed by the church board, which trial committee shall have authority to try the case and ascertain the guilt or innocence of the accused. The pastor shall preside at the trial unless he, himself, is involved; in such case the church board shall appoint another person to preside. If the accused be found guilty, such findings shall have the effect of expelling the person accused from membership in the Church of the Nazarene.

§3. An appeal from the decision of the trial committee may be made to the district court of appeals within twenty days, and its decision shall be final.

§4. A faithful record of the proceedings of any church trial conducted within a local church shall be kept by a person chosen by the trial committee. It shall be his duty, in case of an appeal, to furnish his record to the appellate court.

§5. The appellant shall transmit to the district court of appeals his appeal in writing, accompanied by a statement setting forth the grounds of his appeal. The written statement shall also be accompanied by a copy of the charges filed prior to the trial, and a copy of the record and the evidence taken at the trial. All such copies must be endorsed as correct by a majority of the members of the trial committee.

§6. In all such cases of appeal by a member to the district court of appeals from a decision of a trial committee, the person presiding shall act as respondent and shall file with the district court of appeals a brief review of the case, and his reasons, if any, why the judgment should be affirmed.

DISCIPLINE OF A MINISTER

¶ 296, §1. In case an elder or a licensed minister be accused of unchristian or imprudent conduct, or promulgating doctrines out of harmony with the doctrinal statement of the Church of the Nazarene, or serious laxity in the enforcement of our General Rules [¶ 35] and covenant vows [¶ 361], the district advisory board shall appoint an investigating committee of two elders, which shall carefully examine into the accusation, which shall be in writing, signed by the accuser or accusers. Such committee shall confer with the accused person. In case it shall find that there are grounds for the accusation, a reasonable time shall be given for repentance and reformation. The investigating committee shall report its findings to the district advisory board either that there seem no sufficient grounds for charges or that there are grounds for charges together with the facts as to repentance or otherwise.

§2. If the investigating committee report that there are grounds for charges, then such charges, with specifications, shall be made in writing, signed by two elders, and the minister so charged shall be tried before a court of five elders (not including any of the investigating committee), who shall be disinterested and not related by blood or marriage to the accused, selected by the district advisory board of the district in which the accused has membership, unless one of the members of such district advisory board is himself the subject of such charges, in which event the other members of such district advisory board shall choose such court which shall have jurisdiction of the entire case. Or written charges with specifications may be presented against an elder or a licensed minister by any church board with the consent of the District Superintendent, unless the District Superintendent is the subject of such charges, in which event a majority of the other members of the district advisory board may give their consent.

§3. Written notice shall be served upon the elder or licensed minister so charged, at least twenty days before trial. Such notice shall set forth the nature of the charges, together with the specifications, and the time and place of trial. The accused shall be allowed counsel, who shall be a member of the Church of the Nazarene.

§4. In case the elder or licensed minister so accused shall be found guilty by the unanimous judgment of the members of the court after being tried according to the rules of evidence, judgment shall be pronounced by the court in accordance with the nature of the offense. Such judgment may take the form of expulsion from the membership and the ministry of the Church of the Nazarene, or that of suspension for a limited time from its membership and its ministry.

§5. In case it be impossible for all the members of the court to agree on a verdict, they shall declare a mistrial and notify the district advisory board, which shall at once proceed as before to select a court of five elders. The same procedure shall thereafter be followed as in the first instance.

CHAPTER III

PROCEDURE IN THE TRIAL OF A MINISTER

¶297. The following shall invariably be the course of procedure in connection with the trial of an accused elder or a licensed minister:

§1. The written notice, provided in ¶296 §3 shall be prepared by the District Superintendent and the district advisory board, and signed by them.

§2. The charges shall be general, merely setting forth the nature of the offense, but the specifications, which must be numbered, shall state the facts constituting the alleged offense, with such particulars of time, place, circumstances, and persons present, as may be necessary fully and fairly to apprise the accused of the evidence which he will be required to meet, and thus enable him to prepare his defense.

§3. The District Superintendent, if not disqualified, or an elder in the Church of the Nazarene designated by the District Superintendent and the district advisory board, shall conduct the prosecution. The defendant also shall be represented by one or more elders of the Church of the Nazarene, selected by himself, or by the trial court in case such defendant is absent from the trial, or, if present, fails to make such selection; or he may conduct his own trial if he so desire.

§4. No defendant shall be compelled to testify against himself, or to furnish evidence in his possession that may tend to incriminate him.

§5. No defendant shall be found guilty because he fails or refuses to make any defense, but his guilt must be established by affirmative evidence.

§6. A correct record shall be kept of the evidence taken at the trial, the objections made by either party, and the rulings thereon by the court. A copy of this record shall in every case be filed with the district secretary, and shall be accessible to convicted elders or licensed ministers who desire to appeal. [¶139 §4.]

§7. No findings or judgments of trial courts shall be published until the time for appeals has passed and the actions of such courts have become final.

§8. In no case shall the character of any elder or licensed minister be questioned at the District Assembly of which he is a member, unless written charges are pending against him.

CHAPTER IV

PROCEDURE IN THE APPEAL OF A MINISTER

¶ 298. Upon conviction by a trial court, as provided for in Chapter II hereof, any elder or licensed minister shall have the right of appeal within thirty days to the General Court of Appeals, of which he shall not be deprived by his inability to obtain access to the transcript of the testimony and proceedings at the trial.

¶ 299. The procedure in cases of appeal by elders or licensed ministers shall be as follows:

§1. The appellant shall transmit to the General Court of Appeals his appeal in writing, accompanied by a written statement setting forth the grounds of his appeal. Copies of such appeal and written statement shall be forwarded respectively to the District Superintendent, the district advisory board and the trial court. The statement must also be accompanied by a copy of the charges and specifications filed prior to such trial, the written notice thereof served upon the party accused, the judgment pronounced by the court, which shall always be in writing, and a copy of the official record of the trial. The dates of filing or presentation of such documents should invariably appear on the copies thereof. Such copies must be endorsed as correct by the District Superintendent, or a majority of the members of the trial court.

§2. In all cases of appeal to the General Court of Appeals from the judgment of a trial court, the District Superintendent of the Assembly District in which the trial occurs shall act as respondent, and shall file with the General Court of Appeals a brief review of the case, and his reasons, if any, why the judgment should be affirmed.

CHAPTER V

This court is authorized to approve, modify, or reverse such action; and its decision shall be final.

§2. The district court of appeals shall also have jurisdiction to hear and determine all appeals by lay members from decisions of trial committees of local churches within the Assembly District. This court shall have jurisdiction to hear all appeals that are brought before it in the manner prescribed in Chapter IV, of Part IV, of the Manual, from the judgments of trial courts concerning ministers charged with imprudent or unchristian conduct, or promulgating doctrines out of harmony with the doctrinal statement of the Church of the Nazarene (Part II), or serious laxity in the enforcement of our General Rules [¶ 35] and covenant vows [¶ 361], and all complaints of and appeals from the actions of District Assemblies [¶ 129 §§1-26] in matters affecting the interests of ministers whose membership is in such District Assemblies, and all complaints of and appeals from the actions of District Superintendents [¶ 134 §§1-11] in matters affecting the interests of ministers who are amenable to the lawful authority of such District Superintendents.

§2. In all such cases due notice of such complaint or appeal must have been given within thirty days to the District Assembly or District Superintendent whose action is complained of or appealed from.

§3. This court is authorized to approve, modify, or reverse such judgment or action, and its decision, which must be in writing, shall be final.

§4. This court, when called upon by the General Assembly or by the Board of General Superintendents to give its construction of the meaning and force of any of the provisions of this Manual, shall promptly comply with such request, giving its opinion in writing, and the construction thus placed by it upon the provisions in question shall be authoritative and final.

§5. The publication [¶ 250 §8] of the opinions and decisions of the General Court of Appeals shall be left to the discretion of the court in consultation with the Board of General Superintendents.

§6. The General Court of Appeals shall prepare and have printed blank forms of charges and specifications to be used in trials of elders and licensed ministers. These forms shall be printed and kept in stock by the Nazarene Publishing House. The cost of their printing shall be paid out of the general contingent fund.

§7. Within thirty days after the rendition of its judgment or decree the General Court of Appeals shall file a true copy thereof with the General Secretary of the Church of the Nazarene. The General Secretary shall keep all such decisions in permanent form. [¶ 254 §4.]

- III. THE LORD'S SUPPER
- IV. MATRIMONY
- V. BURIAL SERVICE

CHAPTER I

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

¶ 359. I. Baptism of Believers

Dearly Beloved: Believing that God has given you forgiveness of sins, and spiritual life through Christ Jesus our Lord and Savior, and that you are thus graciously prepared to receive Christian baptism, as declarative of your saving faith and covenant of obedience, you will now give avowals of your belief and purpose.

Do you believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son, our Lord? that He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary? that He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried? that the third day He rose from the dead? that He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, and from thence shall come again to judge the quick and the dead? and

Do you believe in the Holy Ghost? the Church of God? the communion of saints? the remission of sins? the resurrection of the body? and the life everlasting?

Answer: All this I stedfastly believe.

Will you be baptized in this faith?

Answer: I will.

Do you renounce the devil and all his works? the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the flesh and of the mind?

Answer: I renounce them all.

Will you then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of your life?

Answer: I will.

[The minister, asking the name, shall say]:

A. B., I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

¶360. II. Baptism of Infants

Dearly Beloved: Baptism is the external seal of the new covenant of grace.

In presenting this child for Christian baptism, you must remember that it is your part and duty to see that he be taught, as soon as he shall be able to learn, the nature and the end of this holy sacrament. You shall call upon him to give reverent attendance upon appointed means of grace; see that he is taught the truth of God as contained in the Holy Scriptures, and help him, as you may be able, in the way of life.

[The minister may then ask the friends of the child to name the child, and baptize it, saying]:

I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

[The minister may offer prayer, the congregation uniting in the Lord's Prayer]:

CHAPTER II

¶361. RECEPTION OF MEMBERS

Dearly Beloved: The privileges and blessings which we have in association together in the Church of Jesus Christ are very sacred and precious. There is in it such hallowed fellowship as can not otherwise be known.

There is such helpfulness with brotherly watch-care and counsel as can be found only in the Church.

There is the godly care of pastors, with the teachings of the Word, and the helpful inspiration of social worship. And there is co-operation in service, accomplishing that which can not otherwise be done. It is necessary that we be of one mind and heart. The doctrines upon which the Church rests as essential to Christian experience are brief. We believe in God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; we especially emphasize the deity of Jesus Christ and the personality of the Holy Spirit; that man is born in sin; that he needs the work of the Holy Spirit in regeneration; that, after the work of regeneration, there is the further work of heart-cleansing, or entire sanctification, which is effected by the Holy Ghost. And to each of these works of grace the Holy Spirit gives witness. We believe in eternal destiny, with its rewards and punishments.

Do you heartily believe these truths?

Do you take Jesus Christ as your Savior, and do you realize that He saves you now?

Desiring to unite with the Church of the Nazarene, do you covenant to give yourself to the fellowship and work of God in connection with it, as set forth in the General Rules and Special Rules of the Church of the Nazarene? to endeavor in every way to glorify God, by a humble walk, godly conversation, and holy service; devotedly giving of your means; faithful attendance upon the means of grace; and, abstaining from all evil, seek earnestly to perfect holiness of heart and life in the fear of the Lord?

[These questions being satisfactorily answered, the persons may be received. The minister, taking them by the hand, shall say]:

I welcome you into this church, to its sacred fellowship, duties, and privileges. May the great Head of the Church bless and keep you, and enable you to be faithful in all good works.

CHAPTER III

¶362. THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

[The administration of the Lord's Supper may be introduced by an appropriate sermon or a suitable address, and the reading of 1 Corinthians 11:23-29, Luke 22:14-20, or some other appropriate passage. Let the minister give the following invitation]:

The Lord himself ordained this Holy Sacrament. He commanded His disciples to partake of the bread and wine, emblems of His broken body and shed blood. This is His table. The feast is for His disciples. Let all those who have with true repentance forsaken their sins, and have believed in Christ unto salvation, draw near and take these emblems, and, by faith, partake of the life of Jesus Christ, to your soul's comfort and joy. Let us remember that it is the memorial of the death and passion of our Lord; also a token of His coming again. Let us not forget that we are one, at one table with the Lord.

[The minister, with the congregation, kneeling, may offer prayer of confession and supplication, with the following prayer of consecration]:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who of Thy tender mercy didst give Thine only Son, Jesus Christ, to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption; hear us, O merciful Father, we most humbly beseech Thee, and grant that we, receiving these Thy creatures of bread and wine, according to Thy Son, our Savior Jesus Christ's holy institution, in remembrance of His death and passion, may be made partakers of the benefits of His sacrificial death; who in the same night that He was betrayed, took bread and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to His disciples, saying, Take, eat, this is my body, which is broken for you; do this in remembrance of me.

Likewise, after supper, He took the cup, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this, for this is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins; do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me. Amen.

[Then may the minister, himself partaking, with the assistance of any other ministers present, and, when necessary, of the stewards, administer the Communion to the people kneeling.]

[If there be those who can not kneel, let them receive it sitting or standing. While the bread is being distributed, let the minister say]:

The body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was broken for thee, preserve thee blameless, unto everlasting life. Take and eat this, in remembrance that Christ died for thee.

[As the cup is being passed, let the minister say]:

The blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thee blameless unto everlasting life. Drink this, in remembrance that Christ's blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.

[The Lord's prayer with extempore prayer of thanksgiving.]

CHAPTER IV

¶363. MATRIMONY

[At the day and time appointed for the solemnization of matrimony, the persons to be married—having been qualified according to law—standing together, the man on the right hand and the woman on the left, the minister shall say]:

Dearly Beloved: We are gathered together here in the sight of God, and in the presence of these witnesses, to join together this man and this woman in holy matrimony, which is an honorable estate, instituted of God in the time of man's innocency, signifying unto us the mystical union that exists between Christ and His Church; which holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with His presence and first miracle that He wrought, in Cana of Galilee, and is commended of St. Paul to be honorable among all men; and therefore is not by any to be entered into unadvisedly; but reverently, discreetly, and in the fear of God.

Into which holy estate these persons present come now to be joined. Therefore, if any can show just cause why they may not lawfully be joined together, let him now speak, or else for ever hold his peace.

[And also speaking unto the persons that are to be married, the minister shall say]:

I require and charge you both, that if either of you know any impediment why you may not be lawfully joined together in matrimony, you do now confess it; for be ye well assured that so many as are coupled together otherwise than God's Word doth allow, are not joined together by God, neither is their matrimony lawful.

[If no impediment be alleged, then shall the minister say unto the man]:

Wilt thou have this woman to be thy wedded wife, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of matrimony? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honor and keep her, in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all others, keep thee only unto her, so long as ye both shall live?

[The man shall answer]:

I will.

[Then shall the minister say unto the woman]:

Wilt thou have this man to be thy wedded husband, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of matrimony? Wilt thou love, honor, and keep him in sickness and in health; and forsaking all others, keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live?

[The woman shall answer]:

I will.

[Then shall the minister pray thus]:

O Eternal God, Creator and Preserver of all mankind, Giver of all spiritual grace, the Author of everlasting life, send Thy blessing upon these Thy servants, this man and this woman, whom we bless in Thy name; that, as Isaac and Rebecca lived faithfully together, so these persons may surely perform and keep the vow and covenant between them made, and may ever remain in perfect love and peace together, and live according to Thy laws: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

[Then shall the minister join their right hands together, and say]:

Forasmuch as this man and this woman have consented together in holy wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and this company, and have declared the same by joining of hands, I pronounce that they are husband and wife together. in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Those whom God hath joined together let no man put asunder. Amen.

[And the minister shall add his blessing]:

God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, bless, preserve, and keep you; the Lord mercifully with His favor look upon you, and so fill you with all spiritual benediction and grace, that ye may so live together in this life that in the world to come ye may have life everlasting. Amen.

[Then may the minister offer the following prayer, or may use extemporary prayer]:

O God of Abraham, God of Isaac, God of Jacob, bless this man and this woman, and sow the seed of eternal life in their hearts, that whatsoever in the Holy Word they shall profitably learn, they may indeed fulfill the same. Look, O Lord, mercifully on them from heaven, and bless them; as Thou didst send Thy blessing upon Abraham and Sarah, to their great comfort, so vouchsafe to send Thy blessing upon this man and this woman, that they, obeying Thy will, and always being in safety under Thy protection, may abide in Thy love unto their lives' end, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Almighty God, who at the beginning didst create our first parents, Adam and Eve, and didst sanctify and join them together in marriage, pour upon these persons the riches of Thy grace, sanctify and bless them, that they may please Thee, both in body and soul, and live together in holy love unto their lives' end. Amen.

CHAPTER V

¶364. BURIAL SERVICE

[At the home, or at the church, let suitable services be held, consisting of appropriate hymns, prayer, and reading of the Scriptures, together with a brief sermon or address suited to the occasion.]

[After the coffin is lowered in the grave, let the minister say]:

We come hither to lay all that was mortal of our dear friend in this new-made sepulcher. He is not here. His absence occasions our coming hither today. This is but the house in which he lived. While he abode in it, it was alive. But he has gone, and the house is silent and lifeless. As it was taken from the earth, so it will go back and mingle with its kindred elements. We can do no other than to bring it hither, and, laying it back upon the bosom of mother earth, say: Earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust. Despite the shadow and sorrow caused by his absence, we recognize the immortality of the soul; that through Christ we have hope of eternal life in heaven. Also that these mortal bodies shall come forth to the final awards of eternity.

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

CHAPTER IIIGENERAL ASSEMBLY REPORTS AND RESOLUTIONS*¶405. Relating to Monthly Reports from Various Institutions

That all institutions, such as schools, rescue homes, orphanages, of the entire denomination render a monthly report of all their receipts and disbursements to the General Treasurer. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1923.]

¶406. Relating to Annuities

That our general boards and institutions be prohibited from using annuity gifts until such have become the valid property by the death of the annuitant, and that such annuity gifts be carefully invested in funds usually accepted as trust funds by the courts of our land. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1923.]

¶407. Relating to Debt

That no institution incur any debt on the strength of pledges, and that pledges be not counted as assets until actually paid. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1923.]

¶408. Relating to Credentials

§1. That it is illegal to seat visitors not regularly elected as alternates in the place of delegates not present. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1919.]

§2. That these [visitors] not being elected alternates cannot be seated. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1923.]

§3. That since Rev. has transferred from his former Assembly District and his transfer has been accepted, he has lost all rights of membership in his former Assembly District, and would therefore be ineligible to be seated as a delegate from the Assembly District in which he formerly held his membership. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

¶409. Relating to Secret Societies

On request, the General Superintendent presiding ruled that membership in or fellowship with oathbound, secret orders or fraternities, is out of harmony with the spirit of the Manual. The General Assembly sustained the ruling of the chair by a unanimous standing vote. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1923.]

¶410. Relating to Fixing the Time of Church Consolidation

That the time when the Second General Assembly of our church met at Pilot Point, Texas, and three streams of the "water of life" had their glorious confluence—one from the Pacific, one from the Atlantic, and one from the Gulf of Mexico—be recognized as the date when our church wedding took place, and we were united as one people amidst scenes of rapture far transcending the possibilities of description. We would further recommend that the Board of General Superintendents be authorized to fix the exact date of this great spiritual marriage, and to make all necessary arrangements for its proper observance throughout our church. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1923.]

¶411. Relating to Printing of District Minutes

Your Committee on Publishing Interests have considered that part of the report of the Committee on Ways and Means referred to it, and recommend that the various Assembly Districts have their assembly minutes printed by our Publishing House. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1923.]

VIII. STATISTICAL.

¶413. Relating to Duration of General Assembly

WHEREAS, Our General Assembly in the proper exercise of the business delegated to it requires two full weeks; and

WHEREAS, The beginning of our General Assembly in the middle of any week rushes us into business without proper time for devotion; and

WHEREAS, Many of our delegates are forced to travel on the Sabbath in order to arrive on time; and

WHEREAS, In the concluding hours of our past General Assemblies we have rushed home without a proper time of devotion; and

WHEREAS, The opening of our General Assembly on Sunday and the closing of same on the second Sunday following would give the desired time for business and at the same time give a full day of devotion in the opening and a full day of devotion and inspiration at the close; be it

Resolved, That our further General Assemblies do so open and close. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

¶414. Relating to General Assembly Entertainment Committee

WHEREAS, The General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene is becoming large in size and more difficult of entertainment, requiring that plans be made many months in advance of the date of convening; and

WHEREAS, Persons having authority to make all necessary arrangements should be placed in charge for that purpose with the sanction of the General Assembly back of them; therefore be it

Resolved, That the General Secretary, the General Treasurer, and three persons appointed by the Board of General Superintendents at least one year before the convening of the Assembly, shall constitute a General Assembly entertainment committee. This committee shall have authority to arrange all necessary details regarding offices, exhibits and space, entertainment and meals, and whatever else may be needful to contribute to the comfort, convenience and efficiency of the General Assembly, and enter into contracts necessary to provide the same; and further

Resolved, That the said committee with the General Superintendents, shall formulate a program for the General Assembly including anniversaries for each of our general interests; a communion service; and other religious services for the first three days of the Assembly or until the Assembly shall have raised a committee on public worship; subject to the approval of the General Assembly. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

¶415. Relating to the General Superintendents

§1. That our General Superintendents shall supervise our foreign missionary work in all fields, and that each field shall be visited by at least two different General Superintendents in each quadrennium.

§2. After a careful consideration of the matter of supervision of the work of missions on the foreign fields we recommend:

(1) That the Department of Foreign Missions so strengthen its policy as to give the District Superintendents on the foreign fields more authority over the missionaries and stations under their supervision.

(2) That these foreign missionary districts be supervised by the Board of General Superintendents, who may visit the fields from time to time as the work and interests may demand.

§3. That the expenses of the General Superintendents incurred in the supervision of the foreign fields be paid out of the foreign mission funds.

§4. That the General Assembly elect four (4) General Superintendents.

§5. That the salary of each of our General Superintendents be fixed at four thousand dollars ($4,000) per year and that love offerings be taken for them at District Assemblies, conventions and meetings where they labor, to apply on expenses, that such expenses as are not met in this manner shall be paid from funds in the general treasury.

§6. That "In case a vacancy occur on the Board of General Superintendents during a quadrennium, the question of calling for the election for filling the vacancy shall be left to the discretion of the Board of General Superintendents."

§7. We recommend that it shall be the policy of the Church of the Nazarene that no person shall be elected to the office of General Superintendent who has not attained to the age of thirty-five years, or who has reached the age of seventy years; provided, this policy shall not apply prior to the Eighth General Assembly.

416. Relating to Judiciary Actions

§1. Has the district advisory board the right to transfer a member of the District Assembly to another denomination?

Ans. The district advisory board has no authority to transfer a member of the District Assembly to another denomination.

§2. (a) Does a District Superintendent have the right to give his written approval to the sale of church property without the consent of the district advisory board?

(b) Does he need the consent of the district advisory board?

Ans. (a) The District Superintendent does have the right to give his written approval of the sale of church property without the approval of the district advisory board.

(b) He does not need the consent of the district advisory board.

§3. Relating to General Rules ¶35 §2 (7) "membership in or fellowship with oathbound, secret orders or fraternities."

(a) Does this mean that the Church of the Nazarene will not permit its members to hold their former insurance in this class of orders providing that the fees are paid for this purpose only and there is no fellowship with the organization?

(b) Does a church have the right to maintain the membership of a person when he holds membership in a secret order solely for the purpose of keeping his insurance while it bars from membership other persons because they are members of the same order?

Ans. (a) (b) According to ¶35 §2 (7) of our Manual, one cannot be a member of the Church of the Nazarene while holding membership in an oathbound, secret order.

§4. A woman marries a man who had been previously married and unscripturally divorced. Would she be barred from membership in the Church of the Nazarene providing her own individual case met the requirements for membership?

Ans. Such a person as that referred to would be barred from membership in the Church of the Nazarene.

§5. General Rules ¶35 §2 (3) relating to "the use of tobacco in any of its forms, or the trafficking therein."

Does this prohibit church membership in the Church of the Nazarene to a person who is employed in a store, either as clerk or manager, where among other things he is obliged to sell tobacco?

Ans. There is a distinction between trafficking as the owner of a business and selling as a clerk; and therefore, we would not interpret the selling as a clerk as violating the letter of the Manual.

§6. At a church meeting called for the purpose of voting on the recall of a pastor, is it legal to count the votes of members not present at the time of such voting?

Ans. It would be illegal to count the votes of members not present when voting on the recall of a pastor.

§7. If a licensed minister meet all the requirements for the renewal of his license according to ¶197, is the District Assembly obliged to renew such license?

Ans. A District Assembly is not under obligation according to ¶197 to renew said license.

§8. A church has a debt on its property. It elects a finance committee of three who are members of the church board with instructions to receive and disburse all money which applies to the church debt. Has the church the right to make this committee custodian of that part of the church funds and to receive and disburse the same independent of the regularly elected church treasurer?

Ans. The church does have such a right.

§9. A pastor resigns. The District Superintendent calls the church board together to consider the appointment of a man to fill the vacancy until the next District Assembly. He finds that the church board had previously held a meeting and elected a man for the pastorate for the remainder of the District Assembly year, and also had called him for the year following. Is the church acting within its rights?

Ans. The church was not acting within its rights.

§10. In case a District Superintendent and pastor fail to investigate charges filed against a minister in their Assembly District as directed in Q296 §§1, 2 of the Manual, does this incriminate the District Superintendent or the pastor for failure to make this investigation?

Ans. A District Superintendent would be incriminated if he failed to investigate written accusations against a minister in his Assembly District. The fact of his amenability to his District Assembly is evidence that he will be subject to charges for failing to discharge his official duty. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

Q417. Relating to Public Bathing Places

Resolved, That this General Assembly go on record as being unqualifiedly opposed to our people's patronizing promiscuous public bathing places. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

Q418. Relating to Church Music

Inasmuch as the spirit of this "age of jazz" is evidently exerting upon the music of our church an influence tending to a superficiality and lack of reverence in our worship such as will weaken the effect of our message to the world;

We recommend that this General Assembly express its disapproval of this tendency; and we would urge our evangelists and pastors to join in a united effort to counteract this hurtful influence by discouraging the use in religious services of songs savoring of jazz. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

¶419. Relating to Prohibition

WHEREAS, the Church of the Nazarene stands man to man in favor of prohibition; be it

Resolved, That this General Assembly go on record as opposed to any presidential candidate who does not openly commit himself in favor of the Eighteenth Amendment. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

¶420. Relating to Commission on Manual Revision

WHEREAS, Much confusion results from the present method of Manual revision and there seems to be some conflict in duty between the committee on revision and other committees; therefore be it

Resolved, (1) That we dispense with the present committee on revision;

(2) That we appoint a standing Commission on Manual Revision of seven members, five of whom shall constitute a quorum, to hold office until the close of the next General Assembly;

(3) That copies of all memorials shall be furnished to each member of this Commission by the General Secretary as soon as received by him;

(4) That this Commission shall meet at least one week prior to the meeting of the General Assembly, give careful attention to these memorials, and report to the General Assembly. This report, with all memorials, shall then be referred to the appropriate committees of the General Assembly, the Commission suggesting to which committee each part shall be referred, for the action of such committees. These committees shall report back to the General Assembly, and after the action of the General Assembly, shall again be referred to the Commission for harmony. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

¶421. Relating to the N. Y. P. S. Program

WHEREAS, The challenge was laid down to the General Nazarene Young People's Society to support and foster the work of home missions in the United States and Canada; therefore be it.

Resolved, That the General Nazarene Young People's Society Executive Board accept this challenge and enlist the support of the entire Nazarene Young People's Society membership in financing the home missionary program to the minimum amount of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for the next quadrennium. [Adopted by the Executive Board of the General Nazarene Young People's Society, 1928.]

Resolved, That the General Assembly go on record as approving the action of the Executive Board of the General Nazarene Young People's Society in its purpose to raise $25,000 a year, or $100,000 for the quadrennium, for home missions. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

¶422. Relating to Appeals for Money

WHEREAS, Many local churches are circularizing the whole church with appeals for money with which to pay debts, erect churches, or purchase buildings; and

WHEREAS, Those to whom such appeals are sent are usually burdened with the local financial obligations and such appeals become very embarrassing; therefore be it

Resolved, That all such appeals be discouraged, except where confined to the Assembly Districts in which they originate, and when so made in such Assembly Districts to have the written endorsement of the District Superintendent and the district advisory board. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

¶423. Relating to Bible Societies

That the General Assembly request our General Secretary to provide a space in our statistical blanks to report offerings for the Bible societies, and that our editors and missionary secretaries be requested to publish notices and information relative to a day when our churches shall take an offering for the Bible societies, the churches in the United States for the American Bible Society, and those in Canada and Great Britain for the British and Foreign Bible Society. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

¶424. Relating to the Church Constitution

WHEREAS, It is imperative that our Nazarene membership, ministerial and lay, have ample time for the perusal and consideration of the proposed constitution for our church; and

WHEREAS, The provisions of said constitution require a favorable vote of two-thirds of all our District Assemblies; therefore be it

Resolved, That we instruct our General Secretary to send copies of the proposed constitution to the entire membership of our separate District Assemblies through the district secretary at least thirty days prior to the time of District Assembly sessions; and be it further

Resolved, That the Board of General Superintendents, after the adoption of the constitution by the District Assemblies, shall announce its adoption in the columns of our church organ, the Herald of Holiness, and that said announcement with the ratification of the District Assemblies shall constitute the adoption of this constitution. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

¶ 425. Relating to Financial Goals

[EXPLANATION: These goals represent the ultimate aim which general budget items seek.]

§1. FOREIGN MISSIONS. That the general foreign missionary budget for the first fiscal year be the maximum sum of $200,000; for the second fiscal year a maximum sum of $220,000; for the third fiscal year a maximum sum of $240,000; for the fourth fiscal year a maximum sum of $260,000; making a total maximum of $920,000 for the quadrennium.

§2. HOME MISSIONS. That the minimum budget for home missions be placed at $25,000 for the first fiscal year, with an annual increase of 10 per cent each year through the quadrennium.

§3. CHURCH EXTENSION. That the maximum sum of $15,000 be set for this cause for the year 1929, and this amount be increased by 10 per cent each succeeding year in the quadrennium.

§4. MINISTERIAL RELIEF. That the maximum budget for ministerial relief for the first fiscal year of the quadrennium be fixed at $12,000, for the second fiscal year at $14,000, for the third fiscal year at $16,000, and for the fourth fiscal year at $18,000, making a total for four years of $60,000.

§5. EDUCATION. That each Educational Zone raise the equivalent of one dollar a member for the support of its educational institutions, the same to be secured in any way the zone may see fit.

§6. CHURCH SCHOOLS. [No goal adopted by the General Assembly.]

§7. NAZARENE YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY. The salary of the field secretary, together with necessary traveling expenses, and other expenses which will be incurred by the General Executive Board, be raised through an assessment of an amount equal to twenty-five cents per N. Y. P. S. member per year, and that these funds be paid direct to the General Treasurer of the church by the local societies, and that they should be disbursed by him when and as approved by the General Nazarene Young People's Society Executive Board.

¶426. Relating to Foreign Missions

That the fields already occupied by the Church of the Nazarene be given adequate equipment to prosecute their work in the most effective manner, rather than to occupy new fields.

That a uniform policy of handling and accounting of the finances of foreign mission fields be devised and that all workers in foreign fields be required to adhere to that policy. We also recommend that semiannual reports be made to the Department of Foreign Missions and the General Board from each field on forms to be furnished by the Department of Foreign Missions.

That each missionary be required to sign a contract agreeing to conform to the foreign missionary policy and any subsequent policies that may be adopted by the General Assembly and the General Board affecting the work of foreign missions.

That a certain percentage of the entire amount of the annual foreign missionary budget be set aside as a relief and retirement fund to be used solely for the support and relief of disabled, aged and retired ministers, their wives and needy dependent children.

That the General Superintendents be given full supervision of the activities of our missionary work in the foreign fields and that the Board of General Superintendents be requested to assign one of their number annually to this work.

That the Mexican border work in the southwestern part of the United States be placed under the supervision and control of the Department of Foreign Missions.

That a complete revision of our waiting list of missionary applicants, missionaries under appointment, and missionaries on furlough be made from the standpoint of health, age, and a more thorough medical supervision of missionary applicants.

That it be a part of our missionary policy that every favorable applicant shall serve a probation of two years, working in the homeland under the observation of the Department of Foreign Missions of the church and reporting to said Department, unless there be urgent special exceptions.

That the church set aside a week of prayer and fasting (fast one or more meals a day) to be observed by the whole church—praying that now when so many of our problems are being solved, we may redeem the time by a mighty forward movement for missions. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

¶427. Relating to State of the Church and Public Morals

§1. There have come to our hearts unbounded joy and inspiration at the hearing of the masterful Quadrennial Address of the Board of General Superintendents. This address opens to our view the glorious victories and unprecedented accomplishments of the past four years and the vision which glows with radiant hope and unmeasured possibilities in our onward march as a united body. This Address is pregnant with the spirit of our glorious movement and should be in the hands of all of our members and friends and should function as a guiding principle in the activities of the thousands of leaders in our church and its auxiliaries. We take note of our progress as a united body of holy people with unmeasurable gratitude and praise to the great Captain of our marching host.

§2. There may be some differences on minor points of activities as a church, but we are a united people on the essentials of our holy religion. We are glad to note that there seems to be no disposition on the part of the church to lower its standard in doctrine or practice.

However, in order that we may please God, reach a lost world and maintain our inviting influence among the holy peoples of the earth who are yet outside our movement but who are looking to us, we strongly urge our people everywhere to a fervency of mighty prevailing prayer for a world-wide revival among all nations of the earth, realizing that nothing short of the glory of God upon our altars can effect the greatest success of our church.

§3. As a matter of warning we further urge:

(1) That our dear people do not imbibe or in any way yield to the subtle influence of the spirit of this modern age relating to the questions of Sabbath desecration, immodesty in dress and behavior, seeking for worldly pleasure or honor, and disregard for our church law and standard of right.

(2) That we maintain a proper reverence for the house of God, and that it shall always be known as a house of prayer and worship; that neither the church, its basement, nor any other part thereof, shall ever be used for social or entertainment gatherings, or as a place of banqueting.

(3) That as a people we continue our pronounced attitude in favor of enforcement of the civil law including the Eighteenth Amendment and strongly urge our constituency everywhere to use their influence as well as their power of franchise upholding the Eighteenth Amendment and discouraging corruption in politics in general.

(4) We further urge that our pastors, District Superintendents, and other leaders give proper place to the reading of the General Rules and the Special Rules of our church Manual, and that the matter of upholding the standard of the Bible as held by our church be kept continually before our people. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

¶428. Relating to the Orphanage

The special committee of seven persons appointed by this Seventh General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene in the general orphanage matter recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the General Orphanage Board of the Church of the Nazarene be and is hereby instructed to transfer and deed the property of the orphanage, located at Peniel, Texas, to the Assembly Districts of the Southern (West Central) Educational Zone of the Church of the Nazarene, or as the Assembly Districts of said Southern (West Central) Educational Zone may direct, however,

PROVIDED, That the said Southern (West Central) Educational Zone having its next meetings of the District Assemblies within such zone shall accept such property and shall direct to whom such property shall be conveyed; and

PROVIDED, That said property shall be conveyed subject to the existing debts which now amount to approximately four thousand dollars ($4,000) which debts the Assembly Districts of the said Southern (West Central) Educational Zone shall assume and agree to pay; and further

PROVIDED, That, if the Assembly Districts of the said Southern (West Central) Educational Zone shall not accept said property and assume said obligations, the said General Orphanage Board is hereby instructed and directed to sell and dispose of said orphanage property as soon as can be done after the next meetings of the District Assemblies of the said Southern (West Central) Educational Zone and out of the proceeds of said sale pay the afore-said debts; and further

PROVIDED, That if there be any surplus remaining above the said debts, such surplus shall be at once turned over to the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene; and further

PROVIDED, That the transfer by said General Orphanage Board shall be in any event free and clear of any annuity obligation now or hereafter existing against said orphanage property; and further

PROVIDED, That said property shall be conveyed free and clear of any encumbrance whatsoever if accepted as hereinbefore stated. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

¶429. Relating to Extended Pastoral Relations

Resolved, that where any local Church of the Nazarene is unable because of conditions then and there existing, to secure a minister to serve it for the short period of time provided in the Manual, and where such church would on that account be without a minister and its existence would thereby be endangered, such church may, until the next General Assembly convenes, with the written approval of the District Superintendent of the district and of the Board of General Superintendents, call a pastor to serve it for a longer term than one year, but not exceeding a period of three years. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

¶430. Relating to Adopting the Manual as Amended

Upon motion the Manual was adopted as amended by actions of the Seventh General Assembly. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]
